

Latest updates on electronicAsia

In view of the latest epidemic situation, the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region Government has tightened various disease prevention and control measures and extended entry restrictions for incoming visitors, while many countries and regions have also issued travel alerts and implemented quarantine measures. These mean that overseas exhibitors and buyers will have great difficulty joining electronicAsia, scheduled for 13-16 October 2020, jointly organised by the Hong Kong Trade Development Council (HKTDC) and MMI Asia Pte Ltd. After consultation with industry representatives and key stakeholders, a decision has been made to hold the next electronicAsia on 13-16 October 2021 at the Hong Kong Convention and Exhibition Centre.

We would like to take this opportunity to express our gratitude to exhibitors, group pavilions, industry associations and buyers from around the world for their tremendous support for electronicAsia. We will continue to make every effort to help companies capture business opportunities through different platforms.
